On the Move: A Life. - Free Online Library

His autobiography, On the Move, emphatically confirms this psychological self-diagnosis. From racing his motorcycle at over 100 mph in the Grand Canyon to swimming in shipping lanes off City Island in New York to setting a weightlifting squat record of 600 pounds to ignoring a warning sign about a bull during a hike in Norway ("I thought this must be the Norwegian sense of humor") to serious drug addiction, Sacks has indeed shown an extreme and almost lifelong devotion to immoderation.
